FREE PRODUCTS PROGRAM

Help Hospitalized Veterans' (HHV) Special Projects office distributes meaningful gifts to combat disabled war veterans that have received a purple heart, at no cost to them whatsoever. The gifts are educational, entertaining, and/or activity oriented in nature and represents a meaningful and welcome expression of care and appreciation by our fellow citizens.

A non-profit organization, that was founded in 1971, has added to its programs this service to wartime veterans with service connected disability ratings of 10% or greater as adjudicated by either the Department of Veterans Affairs or the Department of Defense. Eligible veterans will receive a carefully selected product that will be both therapeutic and entertaining.

Gifts are not limited to print and video material only and may be tailored to meet the individual needs of disabled veterans. For example, HHV may provide a personal computer with printer and even provides voice activated models to combat wounded disabled veterans whose injuries are rated at 50% or more disabled. All such computers thus far provided by HHV have also included free shipping and setup, training, as well as a computer technician trained to assist the disabled veterans. All of these services are free to the veterans.

If you think you are eligible for this benefit provided by HHV, just complete the appropriate attached form, and forward it to:
